TDA mis dan on Russian boxers

LAUSANNE: International Boxing Association (IBA) on Wednesday lifted its ban on Russia and Belarus from competing at its events with immediate effect. "Board of Directors voted in favor to cancel its previous decision and allow boxers of Russia and Belarus to compete at the IBA events with immediate effect. The IBA strongly believes that politics shouldn't have any influence on sports. Hence, all athletes should be given equal conditions," IBA said in a statement.

As a result, both Russian and Belarus teams will be able to perform under their flags, and the national anthems will be played in case they win a gold medal.

China toy with Isia and end men's agony

CHENGDU:

World-beaters China yet again put on display their supremacy, toying with India to storm into the quarterfinals of the ITTF World Championships in China with a 3-0 verdict on Thursday.

Two hours before the start of their match, the toss-sheet hada change in the Indian line-up with left-handed Manush Shah slated to play the first time, replacing Manay Thakkar, who had a good outing.

In a like-for-like change, the Chinese pitted World No. 11 Wang Chuquin, a left-hander, to face Manush in the third singles.

The 2018 Youth Olympic champion had the right measure of Manush and accomplished the task assigned to him in style, winning 3-0 against the man from Vadodara.
